

Sergeant Jim Wagner (circled) was the Team Leader for the Orange County Sheriff's Department Dignitary Protection Unit (DPU). Although this unit was a Reserve unit it was called upon for many missions and almost always worked "solo" even when protecting Sheriff Mike Carona. This was a ten-man team headed up by Sergeant Wilfred Moreno, Reserve Operations Coordinator. Sergeant Wagner served from 2000 to 2002. In the Jim Wagner Reality-Based Personal Protection system many bodyguard tactics have been included in the Crime Survival course found in Level 1.
