taught by Jim Wagner

Courses will be held at the Combatives-USA Self-Defense Training Center at Franklin Square (10 miles from JFK International Airport)

Jim Wagner writes Black Belt's monthly column HIGH RISK and was voted as Black Belt Hall of Fame Self-Defense Instructor of the Year 2006. He is also the one who started the reality-based movement.

Jim Wagner literally has the best knife defense system in the world, and elite units all over the world use his techniques and training methods. He has trained the U.S. Marines Military Police, the Finnish National Police Academy, DEA, FBI, ICE, Brazilian GATE, Argentinean GOE, San Diego Sheriff's Academy, and the list goes on.

In this two-day course you will learn everything you need to know about defending yourself against criminal and terrorist knife attacks as well as combat with a knife if you are armed with a knife or edged weapon.

DAY 1: Saturday, December 6, 2008 $250

This course, Knife Survival, will teach you how to survive full speed and full contact, realistic, unpredictable, knife attacks. You will learn how to do self-triage and first aid for knife wounds. Jim Wagner will teach you that there are only 10 angles to attack the human body and 10 ways to block incoming slashes and stabs. You'll also learn how to do disarms in confined spaces.

DAY 2: Sunday, December 7, 2008 $200

This course will certify you to be a Jim Wagner Reality-Based Personal Protection Knife Survival instructor giving you authorization to teach. You will receive additional training not found on Saturday.

DAY 2: Sunday, December 7, 2008 $50

This course, 3 pm to 5 pm, is restricted to law enforcement and military personnel only (I.D. required at the door). This course will cover real-world tactical situations and considerations.
