

Officer Jim Wagner taking a shot on a sniper version M-16 rifle from inside a building at the Military Operations Urban Terrain (MOUT) training facility at MCB Camp Pendleton in 1993. In this photo he is taking a shot recessed inside the room as taught to him by his Marine instructors at Scout Sniper School. Jim Wagner has taken elements of what he had learned back then and teaches his Reality-Based Personal Protection students how to survive sniper attacks in his Level 1 course titled Terrorism Survival.
